

FLOW COUPLING

PRODUCT 20-003

The TechWest Flow Coupling is used to condition flow through the tubing and protect from fluid erosion. The Flow Coupling has full bore tubing ID with a larger wall thickness than conventional tubing.

The Flow Coupling is normally installed both above and below the SSSV. Restrictions in the SSSV can cause production fluids to erode the tubing, causing failure. The Flow Coupling is designed to protect the tubing string providing premature failure.

